

Tribal Trailblazer Award Criteria

Awardees for the Tribal Trailblazer Award are selected in accordance with the following award criteria.

1. Is the applicant actively involved in collaborative efforts to support breastfeeding in their American Indian/Native American or Alaska Native community?
2. Is the applicant a new, emerging, or aspiring leader within this community?
3. Would this be the applicant's first time attending a USBC Conference?
4. Would the applicant be able to attend without the financial support of the award?
5. Does the applicant have well-developed plans for sharing and building on what is learned through the NBCC learning and networking opportunities?
